Lloyd Charlton Honored

Lloyd Charlton (Boonton High School Class of 1944) has been chosen to have his name on the High School's Hall of Fame for his contributions to Boonton.

Lloyd's walking tour 2016

Author, historian and outstanding citizen, as well as a past Vice President of the Boonton Historical Society, Lloyd has been a loyal supporter and major contributor to our success for many years. Many have enjoyed his walking tours of historic Main Street, which have been enhanced by his personal memories and photographs; his participation in our cemetery tours; and the many times Lloyd and his wife, Terry, opened their home for our house tours. Congratulations Lloyd on a well-deserved accolade!

Olde Pequannock Day

The towns of Boonton, Boonton Township, Butler, Denville, Green Pond, Kinnelon, Lincoln Park, Montville Township, Pequannock, Pompton Plains, Riverdale, and Rockaway share a common heritage going back to the original settlers and the early days of colonial America.

Olde Pequannock Day, "Dutch Blue & Iron," was celebrated in November at the Montville Township Library. Historical groups from Rockaway, Boonton, Montville, Riverdale, Lincoln Park and Kinnelon celebrated with individual displays of town history and a large screen presentation of historic places in each town.

Cub Scouts Visit Museum

Boonton Museum's Display at Olde Pequannock Day

Cub scouts Patrick Clear and Raymond Peschetti from Pack 201 Boonton – Wolf's Den – met with Lloyd Charlton who talked about old Boonton and shared some old pictures and maps with them.

Annual Membership Meeting

Our annual membership meeting was held in November. In addition to addressing the business of the meeting, which included one returning trustee, Tammie Holloway, and one new trustee, Jim Cook, Dr. Edward Marlatt, past president of the Society, gave a presentation entitled "What It Means to be American."
